Kenora Catholic District
School Board

Dear Board of Trustees:

On behalf of Council of the City of Kenora, congratulations on your recent appointment to the Kenora Catholic District School Board of Trustees.

Your work as a trustee is significant and important work which will improve student achievement and establish solid foundations for our youth today. Being involved in the influence of education for students is both rewarding and significant work.

Partnerships with our local school boards are important to the City and we want to extend the invitation for any opportunities for the City to work with you on engagement or projects that involve our schools.

We wish you all the best in your term as a School Trustee and look forward to working with you in your term!

Sincerely,

Andrew Poirier
Mayor
